FOREWORD

LITTLE glimpses and suggestions of the delightful gifts which our two shops offer you, are all that is possible within the limitations of this booklet. We hope you will want to pay us a visit and see for yourself.

For those at a distance, we regret that it is impractical for us to issue anything like a catalogue, as so few of our pieces are duplicated. We have made a special study of the selection of gifts for every occasion, and if you will let us know your requirements, we will gladly write you our detailed suggestions.

THE beauty and distinction in the homes of our forefathers was due in a large measure to the artistic treasures brought from India and China in the old sailing vessels. In recent years there has steadily grown up a feeling of loyalty and pride in the work of American artists and craftsmen of today, whose work is illustrated on these pages.

SILVER

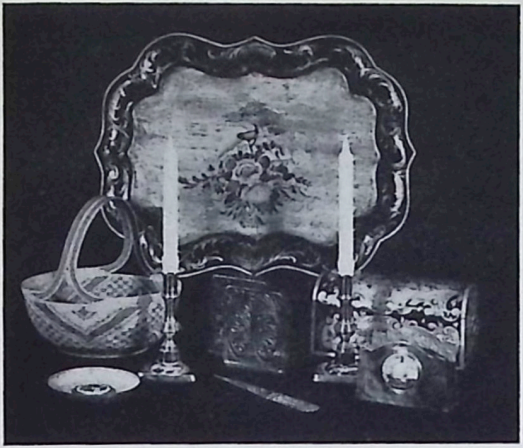
OUR collection of handwrought sterling silver is celebrated for its beauty of design and workmanship. The pieces have unusually good weight and are given the soft "butler's finish." These treasured heirlooms of the future are very little more in price than you would pay in other shops for machine-made products.

Six piece Tea and Coffee Services, from $500. Smaller pieces, such as servers, tea strainers, salad sets, etc., from $3.50 to $21. Children's sets, from $9.50 upward. Sugars and creamers, from $25. Compotes, $37. to $62.

JEWELRY

IN no age has jewelry played a more important part in the costuming of women than today. From the string of beads to the brooch or bracelet of precious or semi-precious stones, whatever adds to the effectiveness and individuality of a gown is decidedly in vogue. Our jewelry is individually designed and executed by the most skilful craftsmen in the country.

Gold brooches, bracelets and rings, $15. to $950. Silver chains, brooches and rings, $4.50 to $40.



WOODCARVING AND DECORATED WARE

QUAINT tin "tole trays", many of them old pieces redecorated, handcarved mahogany book ends, mirrors embellished with gold leaf and sgraffito, letter racks and ash trays in copper and enamel—these make always-appreciated gifts.

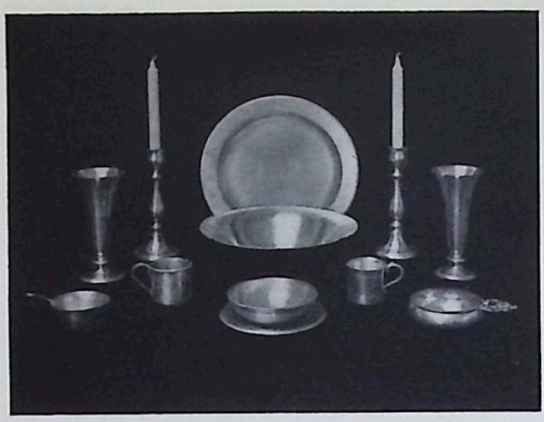
Brass candlesticks, $6. to $15. Painted tin trays, $5. to $45. Carved bookends, $6.50 to $25. Mirrors, $20. and upwards. Enamelled trays and boxes, $3.25 to $35.

GLASS AND CHINA

WHAT is the first impression of the guests who come into your dining room? If you would create a delightful sense of anticipation, it is important that your china and glass shall give a feeling of pleasure at first glance.

Crystal pitchers, $2. Crystal plates, $2. to $15.

Crystal vases in classic form, $6.25 to $12.50. Silver pitcher spoons, $7. to $9. Lustre glass goblets, $12. to $15. a half doz. Reproductions of old lustre and Lowesdorf.



PEWTER

THE alluring charm of old pewter is found again in our modern work. Many of our pieces are reproductions of old colonial forms, and have the advantage of being very moderately priced.

Candlesticks, $6. to $15. a pair.
Mugs, $4. and $5. Porringers, $5. and $6.50.
Bowls, $4. to $25. Plates, $2. to $15.
Vases, $5. to $8.

TEXTILES AND NEEDLEWORK

IN the hurry and rush of our life today, most women feel that they have no time for the old arts of embroidery and weaving, but their interest in textiles and needlework has never died out. As long as there are homes, there will be a need for handworked linens, scarfs, batik hangings, laces, bags, etc.

POTTERY AND LAMPS

THERE is an almost universal delight in discovering a choice bit of pottery or an odd lamp that will just fit into a certain spot. Our vases are the inspiration for beautiful and unique lamp bases, and we are always glad to design and have made shades that will be appropriate.

Vases, $3. to $45. Bowls, $1. to $15.

Child's cup and bowl, with individual name, $5.25. (Allow at least two weeks.)

CHRISTMAS CARDS

WILL your Christmas cards be received as just one of the numerous greetings of the season, or with pleased surprise because they are attractively different?

We are prepared to give special attention to the selection of cards for our patrons who live at a distance, and this year we have an unusually beautiful collection of hand decorated cards from 10 cents to $1. Estimates given for Personal Greeting Cards.

Calendars, 35 cents to $1.25.

Ring-Standard Calendar, 85 cents, postage 7 cents.

PHOTOGRAPHS AND BLOCK PRINTS

We have some of the finest examples of landscape photographs and block-prints suitable for framing.

When the choosing of a gift is entrusted to us, we are concerned not alone that it shall be appropriate and satisfactory, but that it shall be sent out attractively boxed and wrapped.

For the convenience of our patrons we suggest the following points to be covered in placing an order or inquiry with us—

Whether you prefer silver, jewelry, needlework, etc.—whether it is for a wedding gift, for Christmas, or for some other anniversary.

It is advisable always to make a second choice. Allow a reasonable time for the execution of careful hand work.

If you are enclosing check, please note that there is an additional charge for engraving, insured postage, or express.

We are glad to open accounts with persons giving the customary references.
